The HiCrEc 2014 Tour will cover Luton, Bristol, Birmingham & London in the autumn of 2014. The tour will be a series of Awards & Showcases to highlight the contributions of community based Hidden Creative Economy contributors who have been pursuing their craft for a minimum of the past 25 years without mainstream support or recognition. For the first time also, the categories will include sports amongst its numbers in line with the Department of Culture & Media's definition of the creative industries. The
